A Choice of Rooms to Complement Your Special Day

Bosworth Hall holds a Civil Wedding Licence that allows Cromptons, Wolston Lounge and the Library. Cromptons is perfect for a small wedding reception, 10 to 70 guests.

Situated on the ground floor, The Britannia Suite is located above Spindles, the hotel health club, is our largest banqueting suite and can accommodate 220 guests. It has its own private bar and cloakrooms.

This light and intimate room is beautifully decorated with lovely views across the parkland.

The Tollepêche Suite is a delightful air conditioned, wood panelled room with its own private bar and lounge area and can seat up to 140 guests. In the evening a party of up to 200 can gather to continue your celebrations.

The Wolston Lounge is steeped in history and character. For larger parties of up to 120 guests, the oak panelled main reception room of the old house with its magnificent fireplace provides an elegant setting for Civil Ceremony.

The stylish Marquee is available from May to September and provides a wonderful backdrop for a summer wedding. It has a minimum capacity of 75 and a maximum of 120.

Alternatively, should you choose a church ceremony, a wide range of rooms at Bosworth Hall can host superb wedding celebrations.

Whatever the size of your celebration and whichever room you use, the venue's experienced team will provide an unrivalled level of service. Children are very welcome at Bosworth Hall and special menu options are available upon request.

The Harcourt Suite is one of our most popular rooms with a maximum capacity of 60 guests, and with its high ornately carved ceiling, pink walls and floor to ceiling sash windows, provides the perfect and most elegant setting for an intimate Wedding Breakfast. Overlooking the parkland to the front of the hotel, it is reached by the impressive main carved staircase which provides a beautiful backdrop for your wedding day photographs.

Wedding Etiquette and Toasts

SUGGESTED TOP TABLE SEATING PLAN

The Top Table

The Receiving Line

The Receiving Line is courteous, practical and a great way to ensure you see everyone. Normally, when the Bride's parents have sent out invitations, they can be regarded as the Host and Hostess and should be first in line to receive the guests.

Grace

The Toastmaster may say grace if required after escorting the Bride and Groom to their places at the top table. The toastmaster will introduce someone selected by the Bride and Groom to say grace if required. Sometimes grace is not said.

The First Toast

The First Toast is the duty and privilege of the Bride's father, but where this cannot be the case a close relative or family friend may give this very special toast to...

The Bride and Bridegroom

The Bridegroom responds to this toast on behalf of himself and his Bride. It is also the Bridegroom's duty to make the second toast to...

The Bridesmaids

The Best Man, on behalf of the Bridesmaids, responds to this toast. It is his duty to read out selected messages of congratulations. It is not traditional for the Best Man to repeat the toast to the Bride and Groom.
