Our Venues

Whether you envision a grand celebration or an intimate ceremony, our venues cater to every couple's dream.

VICTORIAN RESTAURANT

Our Beautiful Victorian Restaurant circa 1844 is part of the original Royal Pavilion Hotel which was the first large purpose-built hotel in Folkestone. The hotel had many distinguished guests including British and European royalty and other eminent Victorian and Edwardian patrons.

The restaurant has retained the relaxed and elegant architecture of the era and therefore has a beautiful ambience for that elegant wedding breakfast.

The restaurant is able to cater for both plate and carvery service with ease, and all menus can be adapted to suit your dietary requirements.

CHANNEL SUITE

The Channel Suite is an additional room leading on from the Victorian Restaurant and is also part of the original Victorian Royal Pavilion. The décor is a continuation of the Victorian elegance which is in keeping with the style expected of the era, with stunning gold and cream décor, with an accent of wine red & gold stylish drapes, swags and tails.

The elegant architecture lends itself to being the perfect suite to hold your wedding ceremony, being graceful and dignified with large scenic windows giving lots of natural light to the setting and the sparkling chandeliers.

After the days celebrations, the room can be easily transformed for your evening revelries, by fitting a dance floor and using the stage area for your evening entertainment of a band or DJ

NEPTUNE SUITE

Our Neptune Function room, is where we would hold your after party, situated in the main part of the hotel - below stairs!

The Neptune has its own bar with a interchangeable dance floor which is ideal for a DJ & photo-booth set-up. The Neptune is also a great location for Weddings that want a more relaxed feel, with a buffet rather than a formal sit-down wedding breakfast.

The room has a nice party vibe and is very popular with guests
