Personal data

Under the EU's General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) personal data is defined as:

"any information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person ('data subject'); an identifiable natural person is one who can be identified, directly or indirectly, in particular by reference to an identifier such as a name, an identification number, location data, an online identifier or to one or more factors specific to the physical, physiological, genetic, mental, economic, cultural or social identity of that natural person".

How we use your information

This privacy notice tells you how we, Britannia Hotels Group, will collect and use your personal data.

When you visit our website we may place cookies on your browser. We use cookies to be able to provide a better website, service and statistics. Cookies are small pieces of text sent by your web browser by almost every website you visit. A cookie text file is stored in your web browser and allows us or a third-party to recognise you and make your next visit easier. They help us monitor our visitor's behaviour. Cookies don't give us access to your device or any personal information, other than the data you choose to share with us.

Cookies can be "persistent" or "session" cookies. "Session" cookies are stored on memory and never written to disk. When the browser is closed the cookie is permanently deleted. If the cookies contain an expiry date, it is considered a "persistent" cookie, which will be removed on the specified date. They can also be deleted manually. You can accept or decline cookies. Cookies are accepted by default by most browsers, if you would like to disable them please refer to your browser's help section.

We use 'first party' and 'third party cookies' on our website.

'First party' cookies are set by us. These cookies ensure that your booking process is remembered between pages, so that we are able to process your booking and payment properly. We also use cookies to be able to monitor our website performance.

'Third party' cookies are set by our trusted partners.

Please see Addendum 1 for a list of cookies used.

- We use Google Analytics cookies to be able to measure and track the usage of our website. This helps us to identify areas for improvement. We also want to track how many of our visitors make bookings, which helps us to make business forecasts and decisions.
- We use Google AdWords – Google’s main advertising product. AdWords offer pay-per-click (PPC) advertising displayed next to search results to boost website traffic and sales.
- We use Google Display Network to retarget our customers. You may see our adverts on other websites, after you’ve visited ours.
- We use Yahoo Gemini Network to be able to target and retarget our customers with display adverts.
- We work with several affiliate partners who advertise on our behalf, their cookies help us to see if our customers came to our website through one of the affiliate advertisers, so we can credit them correctly.
- We also use social media buttons e.g. Facebook and Twitter, to allow you to connect to your social networks and share content.
- We use Hotjar cookies to record and monitor user’s behaviour on our website, this helps us to improve the website content and functionality as well as understand how our customers use our website, which allows us to make improvement decisions. Hotjar records visits to our website in a video format. It also produces heatmaps to help us identify the most visited areas of our website. It is also used by us to gather feedback from our visitors.
- We use Emarsys cookies to monitor performance of our email newsletters and to be able to track and target our subscribers

By continuing to use our site and by using the social media functionality, you consent to the relevant cookies being set on your device. For more information about cookies and how to disable them please visit www.allaboutcookies.org.

Why does Britannia Hotels Group need to collect and store personal data?

In order for us to provide you with the service/accommodation you have booked we need to collect personal data for correspondence purposes and/or detailed service provision. In any event, we are committed to ensuring that the information we collect and use is appropriate for this purpose, and does not constitute an invasion of your privacy.

In terms of being contacted for marketing purposes Britannia Hotels Group would contact you for additional consent.

Will Britannia Hotels Group share my personal data with anyone else?

We may pass your personal data on to third-party service providers contracted to Britannia Hotels Group in the course of dealing with you. Any third parties that we may share your data with are obliged to keep your details securely, and to use them only to fulfil the service they provide you on our behalf. When they no longer need your data to fulfil this service, they will dispose of the details in line with Britannia Hotels Group's procedures. If we wish to pass your sensitive personal data onto a third party we will only do so once we have obtained your consent, unless we are legally required to do otherwise.

How will Britannia Hotels Group use the personal data it collects about me?

Britannia Hotels Group will process (collect, store and use) the information you provide in a manner compatible with the EU's General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). We will endeavour to keep your information accurate and up to date, and not keep it for longer than is necessary. Britannia Hotels Group is required to retain information in accordance with the law, such as information needed for income tax and audit purposes. How long certain kinds of personal data should be kept may also be governed by specific business-sector requirements and agreed practices. Personal data may be held in addition to these periods depending on individual business needs.

Under what circumstances will Britannia Hotels Group contact me?

Our aim is not to be intrusive, and we undertake not to ask irrelevant or unnecessary questions. Moreover, the information you provide will be subject to rigorous measures and procedures to minimise the risk of unauthorised access or disclosure.

Can I find out the personal data that the organisation holds about me?

Britannia Hotels Group at your request, can confirm what information we hold about you and how it is processed. If Britannia Hotels Group does hold personal data about you, you can request the following information:

- Identity and the contact details of the person or organisation that has determined how and why to process your data. In some cases, this will be a representative in the EU.
- Contact details of the data protection officer, where applicable.
- The purpose of the processing as well as the legal basis for processing.
- If the processing is based on the legitimate interests of Britannia Hotels Group or a third party, information about those interests.
- The categories of personal data collected, stored and processed.
- Recipient(s) or categories of recipients that the data is/will be disclosed to.
- If we intend to transfer the personal data to a third country or international organisation, information about how we ensure this is done securely. The EU has approved sending personal data to some countries because they meet a minimum standard of data protection. In other cases, we will ensure there are specific measures in place to secure your information.

- How long the data will be stored.
- Details of your rights to correct, erase, restrict or object to such processing.
- Information about your right to withdraw consent at any time.
- How to lodge a complaint with the supervisory authority.
- Whether the provision of personal data is a statutory or contractual requirement, or a requirement necessary to enter into a contract, as well as whether you are obliged to provide the personal data and the possible consequences of failing to provide such data.
- The source of personal data if it wasn't collected directly from you.
- Any details and information of automated decision making, such as profiling, and any meaningful information about the logic involved, as well as the significance and expected consequences of such processing.

What forms of ID will I need to provide in order to access this?

Britannia Hotels Group accepts the following forms of ID when information on your personal data is requested:

Passport or driving licence or birth certificate.
