AT HOLLINS HALL

Course Architect: Ross McMurray, Celtic Manor architect
Open for Play: 1999
Par: 71
Signature Hole: 14th – Viaduct

Hollins Hall is home to an 18 hole championship golf course offering challenging play and breathtaking scenery. Set within 200 acres of rolling hills, the course enjoys panoramic views across the Aire Valley towards the Yorkshire Dales, while remaining just a short distance from Leeds and Bradford.

Designed to championship standards, the course has proudly hosted events on the PGA EuroPro Championship Tour. The rustic character of the former farmland remains woven into the landscape, with traditional stone walls, scenic water features, and mature trees enhancing both the challenge and the setting.
